PREPS CONQUER ST. JOSEPH'S

Georgetown Boys Win at Football by 12 to 5.

Forward Pass Used by Both Teams for Long Gains—Local Eleven Outweighed by Visitors.

Georgetown Preps defeated St. Joseph's College, of Philadelphia, at Georgetown Field, yesterday afternoon, by the score of 12 to 5.

The Preps were outwitted by nearly five pounds to the man, but displayed better form than the Quakers, the difference in team work being greatly perceptible.
Coach McGittigan's eleven playing together exceptionally well. The game was replete with forward passes and trick plays, both teams making their longest gains by resorting to the new phases of the sport. Brennan and Garrity, for the Philadelphiaans, successfully worked the forward pass on two occasions, Garriety making runs of 25 and 25 yards. Several times, however, they lost the ball trying to consummate the play.
Georgetown several times made substantial gains when they were most needed by employing the same tricks. The pass was usually made by Sitterding to Furry, and the full back got away several times for gains averaging 15 yards. On one occasion Sitterding, Furry and Lucas, pulled off a double forward pass for 7 yards.

Furry, Daly, and Martin played best for the Preps. Furry was the most consistent ground gainer, with Martin next in evidence, while Daly's work at left guard was excellent. He repeatedly broke through the Philadelphia forwards and threw the runner by hard tackling, and on the offense he opened big holes for Furry to plough through. For St. Joseph's, Garriety was the star. He got away several times for long gains, and his tackling was so hard and sure that the Preps soon forsook his end.

Philadelphia was first to score. A 25-yard run on a forward pass by Garriety placed the ball on the Preps 5-yard line, from where Scanlon went through the line for a touchdown. Garriety failed to kick goal from an angle. The Preps' touchdown was made soon after, Lucas fumbled Furry's kick-off, and the Preps recovered the ball on St. Joseph's 20-yard line. Repeated line plunging by Furry brought the ball to the 5-yard line. Furry hit the line for 2 yards and Conway for the ball on St. Joseph's 15-yard line.
Furry, Martin, and Terry advanced the ball for a touchdown. Sitterding kicked a difficult goal. Score: Preps, 6; St. Joseph's, 5.

The next touchdown followed in short order. A forward pass to Furry placed the ball on St. Joseph's 15-yard line.
Furry, Martin, and Terry advanced the ball for a touchdown. Sitterding kicked a goal. Score: Preps, 12; St. Joseph's, 5.

FOUR FAVORITES LOSE

Sandalwood and Dolly Spanker Run to Form.

ANGLER BADLY BEATEN IN LAST

Heavy Impost Too Much to Handle Against Lightweight on Beaulere, Who Easily Won the Mile and a Quarter Event—Poor Start Defeats Belcast—New York's Two Races.

Two favorites, two second choices, and two long shots were the winners at Benning yesterday, in a card that was better than usual, although there was nothing but overnight events. The winning favorites turned up in Sandalwood, in the steplechase, and Dolly Spanker, in the mile run. A third favorite would have won in the fourth race had Mars Cassidy been up to his usual excellent form in getting the field off. In the previous race Cassidy got eighteen places away in a perfect alignment, one of the prettiest starts ever seen at Benning; but when the thirteen were before the barrier in the next race, Miller shot away with Lee Harrison II, with the others flat-footed.
Even with this big advantage it is doubtful whether Harrison would have won from Belcast, the favorite, had not the latter run out, turning into the stretch.
Belcast was almost on even terms before this incident, and lost a couple lengths but he was barely beaten at that, and demonstrated that he could outrun the McCarren gelding with anything like an even break.

Scratches were few in all but the fifth race, when half of the twelve entries were withdrawn, showing that the horsemen are trying to keep keeping for their thoroughbreds this winter.

New York Second in Two Races.

It is seldom that a horse is asked to race twice in one day, but this has occured twice this year at Benning. Yesterday G. L. Richards sent New York out in the third race at seven furlongs, and he finished second. He worked so well that he was kept in the fifth race, where he again finished second. He was a long shot in both races. Last spring "Pa" Bradley raced Peter Paul in the opening race at seven furlongs, but his showing was not satisfactory to the Virginia horseman, and as Peter Paul was also carded in the last race, Bradley started him twice, but not seriously treated by the better, and Peter Paul received little backing, but he won in a gallop.
New York was in fairly good company yesterday, and both his races were excellent.

Fine weather and a better track made the racing conditions the best of the meeting, and there was another large crowd out to see the sport. In the first race every one of the nineteen entrants carried the colors, with Rappahannock stalled as the first choice. Good pieces hung around nearly all of the others, James R. Keene's Cabochon and Disen-t being the most admired next to Miller's mount. Miller was unable to make his usual flash away from the barrier, but kept close in the company of Nettie Car-tis, Cabochon, and Sandy Creeker, who made all of the pace. Rappahannock had his head in front a few yards from the wire, but stopped, and Sandy Creeker kicked him out. The margin was so small that many persons in the grandstand thought the favorite had won. Old Colony finished weakly, but was something better than the Keene horse, who evidently was a trifle shifty.

Sandalwood Wins Steplechase.

A handicap steplechase was on for decision in the second over the two-and-a-half-mile route. Valley Forge was the only horse scratched, and Sandalwood was opened a 6-to-5 favorite, with Frank Somers and Berry Waddell nearly equal as next in favor, but both went up in the betting, and the strong play out Sandalwood to 4 to 1 at post time. Sandalwood raced in first or second position nearly all of the way through the field and showed the highest class of the lot. He had lots of foot on the flat and came away handily, winning easily. Berry Waddell disappointed his backers by falling in the second turn of the field after racing in good form.

Rather Royal, a neglected 2-to-1 shot, won the seven-furlong race, which came third, and Scarfell, the favorite, had to be content with finishing next to New York.
Scarfell was always a strong favorite, and those of the others who were respected at attention were Bailey and Stolen Moments. For a quarter of a mile Miller set the pace with Scarfell and then gave way to New York and Rather Royal, who got off with the first division and were always in hand. In the final drive Scar-fell stopped, while Rather Royal outgained New York for the purse. Anna Smith showed a good quarter of a mile, but she tossed it up.
Dolly Spanker had very little to beat in the fifth race and all were held at a high price except Watergrass, who closed at 2 to 1. New York, who ran a good race in the third, went begging at 50 to 1.
For the third time this meeting Aver-teer sprinted in front until the head of the stretch, when Watergrass collared him and Notter brought up Dolly Spanker on the outside. The latter was fit and fast and won about as she pleased, while New York got up and shut Avanteur out of the place. Both Possessing and Pleasant Days were much outrun, although the former showed well for half the route.

Angler Badly Beaten Favorite.

Beaulere, a two-year-old, with only 58 pounds to carry a mile and a quarter, made a stiff betting proposition with Angler, who was to carry 120 pounds. It was regarded as a two-horse race and the betting indicated that Angler could not so the distance with so much packed in the saddle, while only the age of Beaulere stood in her way. The latter, however, was far the better of the two, and the real contest was between Beaulere and Bulwark, who ran a surprisingly good race. Bulwark led every inch of the way until within a yard or two of the finish, when Beaulere nosed him out in a hard drive. Bulwark and Caronal were lengths apart and Angler was badly beaten. The favorite tried hard, but Bulwark going up the back stretch, but he had no speed, and when Miller urged Angler on the turn he failed to respond, and his chances were doomed.

It was announced at Benning yesterday that the winter racing season would again be conducted on the Los Angeles track.
For a time there was considerable doubt as to whether racing would be permitted, but all doubt was set aside when Tommy O'Connor received word from John Boden saying that the meeting would be held.
